Volunteering with Ride Andes. Interested? Contact Sally for more details. I am currently the new volunteer at the farm. Just a few things I've fallen in love with so far...the smell of eucalyptus leaves burning on the fire, the bright green humming birds, the tip of snow capped Cotopaxi on the horizon, the long haired goat skin chaps worn by the local chagras and of course the beautiful horses and the gorgeous Guapa and Fraser (Sally's dogs). Follow my adventures on the blog (link below)!

The Fiesta Ride. Definitely not for the faint hearted!
